COLD DAY AT LOUISVILLE.

RAIN SLOWS TRACK AND FRIGID WEATHER LESSENS THE ATTENDANCE.

Crystal Maid Wins the Chief Race of the Day foot Takes Another Purse-Old Grenade in Winning Mood.

Louisville, Ky., May 10.—Today's racing, compared with Saturday's brilliant displays of speed, was decidedly ordinary and cold, cheerless weather served as a further damner to enthusiasm. Yesterday's heavy rath had given the track a severe dreneling, but constant work on it by a big force during the morning accounted for its fairly good condition. Secretary Davis had framed the program, with the exception of the handicap, with the view of enabling the poorer class horses to earn purses and in this besucceede, for the record number of starters since the starters of the starters, dropped off considerably, both in the auctions as well as the mutuels. The handicap, which featured the card, resulted in another class of the starters, dropped off considerably, both in the auctions as well as the mutuels. The handicap, which featured the card, resulted in another close contest, Crystal Maid, the overwhelming favor with the contest of the card, resulted in another close contest, Crystal Maid, the overwhelming favor with the card, which recently arrived from Pimileo. Crystal Maid was lucky in getting away well and in taking a clear lead in the early running, else Charlie Eastman and Sir Cleges, which finished third, would have led her lonne. Charlie Eastman began slowly and appeared tanglet up at the stone and was gradually wearing her down at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Sir Cleges met repeated interference and was lucky to land third money.

That fockey Lee has declined gradually wearing her down at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Sir Cleges met repeated interference and was unknown and the string the atternation. Tom Shaw, whose booking operations of the past

He will leave tonight for Cinciu-nati, where he will remain some time before going on to Chicago and then to New York, where he will hold forth awhile. He made several wagers this afternoon and quit a good winner on the handicap.

Lexington, Ky.. May 10.—E. A. Brennan and his brother Jim, of Hoboken, N. J., are in trouble over fielr stable of racers, among which are Terah. Petulant, Lajennesse, Lady Orimar, G. M. Ed Brennan explained that his brother Jim was on his way here from New Jersey and would settle for it the following Monday. T. P. After a conference the brothers decided their horses were to be raced in Canada instead of at Louisville or Latonia, and plans were made for shipping last Saturday. J. V. Jim Brennan went to Cincinnati Saturday morning, and on Sunday word was passed around that he would beack to settle up this morning. Trainer Lin Marders, however, becoming dissatisfied with the turn matters had taken, quit the stable Sunday morning and agreed to take what was due bim as the stable earned it. Will McDanlel dropped into Lexington from Louisville shortly after Marders quit, and it was reported that he would train the horses. When Sheriff McElroy reached his office this morning he was informed that the horses had been put into a car and left here billed through to Toronto at five o clock this morning. Recent Court Decision Encourages Belief that Racing Days Will Be Increased.

The track owners have been conservative in making plans and gracing alive, but as soon as they feel sure that noble patronage will be restored they will meet the demand for more racing with a liberal supply of it. The turf in New York state is not dead by any means. It has soone powerful friends, and there are the supply of the ture for any means of the confidence of race-goers in the race of the supply of th

BASEBALL TO TEST WALKER-OTIS LAW.

There was some early expectation that the California anti-betting law would be tested on a basis furnished by racing conducted after the time when the law became in effect, but nothing of the sort came off. Then it was said that dog racing had been selected, but, oddly enough, it seems that the popular sport of baseball is to furnish the foundation for action. Three persons who were viewing a San Francisco game Saturday afternoon were arrested charged with betting on its result. The law provides for imprisonment only, there being no alternative of a fine, so it is anticipated there will be a vigorous defense, in the course of which the question of the constitutionality of the Walker-Otis law will be brought in and carried to the court of last resort,

EXPERIMENTAL MEXICAN MEETING HLLD.

Racing Carried on at Aguas Calientes Fails to At tract Much Patronage

City of Mexico, Mexico, May 8.—The first real race meeting which Mexico has had since Colonel Bob Pate operated tracks in this city more than ten years ago, has ended at Agnas Calientes, a small city, twelve hours ride from here. Although the meeting could scarcely be called a success, nevertheless it served to arouse interest. Alejandro de la Arena, a wealthy French-Mexicam and prominent member of the Jockey Club, gave the meeting, and for the occasion erected stands, paddock, stables and constructed a fair seven-and-a-half furlongs are the control of th

In his previous efforts this youngster has been unfortunate in that he met with much early interference. Tom Melton showed a fine turn of speed, considering the condition of the track, which was slow, and he is evidently a colt of some pretensions, it was a bard day on favorites. THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Of the jockeys that were in action last week Vincent Powers, riding at Louisville, scored the honors, having seven winners to his credit, the rich Kentucky Derby being one of them, E. H. L. T., Cincinnati, O. No horse has class or possesses class, but all horses belong to certain classes in which they may be grouped. A first-class horse is a rare animal, such as Colin or Sysonby, for instances. High-class horses race every year. Wintergreen's class remains to be fully established, but for the present it would be fair to call him high-class. Nothing for or against T. M. Green can be said-until he has raced as a three-year-old.
